

Function card - Ready to use

Makes the administration of storage that is to be linked with individual users really flexible, as a lock programmed with Ready to Use is automatically linked with the first card presented and registers its owner as the unique user.

Makes the administration of storage that is to be linked with individual users really flexible, as a lock programmed with Ready to Use is automatically linked with the first card presented and registers its owner as the unique user.

Art. no	Wireless system
371719	Mifare
371371	EM

Technical specifications

Function card - Ready to use

Specification	Value
---------------	-------